

YOUR OWN UNIQUE TOUCH

The furniture in the Harrogate Collection is beautiful just as it is. However, if you would like to add your own unique touch, we have created the Arctic White units in a way that means you can paint them in a colour of your choosing.

Let your imagination run wild when you select the colour that suits your own personal style. Whether your palette requires something neutral or something bold, there are many colour combinations that can be applied, allowing you to create a tailored bathroom that is totally you.
